

Drug & Alcohol Testing Association of Canada

eLEARNING SERIES:
CERTIFIED SPECIMEN COLLECTOR COURSE

Protect the safety of your personnel and the defensibility of your results

DATAAC's self-led, online certification program covers all aspects required of a forensically sound, Canadian drug testing program.

The Certified Specimen Collector (CSC) course includes instruction on both point-of-care testing and laboratory-based testing, multiple specimen type collection, privacy regulations, medical review, and many other topics.

Designed with the needs of today's professional in mind, this module-based course is compatible with smartphones and tablets providing the flexibility needed to complete training course in today's fast-paced workplace.

Course Overview

INDUSTRY BACKGROUND

Drug testing in North America
Canadian Drug Testing Standards (CDTS) Government and private sector policies
Who, when, why, where and how you can test
Legally defensible processes and procedures
Industry best practices

SPECIMEN COLLECTION

Collector safety
Donor rights & privacy
Collection site selection and set-up
Collection techniques and procedures
Collection supplies
Professionalism
Confidentiality
Privacy concerns

THIRDPARTY SERVICE PROVIDERS

Medical Review Officer (MRO)
Substance Abuser Professionals (SAP / SAE)
Collection Service Provider (CSP)
Consortium/Third-party Administrator (C/TPA)

DRUGS OF ABUSE

Classifications - Illicit and Prescription
Trade names and street names
Detection levels
Signs of abuse
Employee assistance programs

SPECIMEN PROCESSING

Point-of-Care Testing (POCT)
Chain of custody
Specimen storage
Specimen Validity Testing (SVT)
Urine, oral fluid and hair specimens
Reporting and documentation
On-site and laboratory-based testing

Start your training today with our easy-to-use online training portal.

Register online in two minutes.

www.datac.ca